

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

– Road to COP30 –

On the Way to Belem

COP30 | AMAZÔNIA
UNITED NATIONS CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE

PARTICIPANTS BOOKLET

Know more about the CFA Project Actors

#ClimateFinance

BRI4GES

We are happy to announce the launch of Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon, a project supported by the World Resources Institute (WRI) under the Green Accountability Fund. This initiative runs from January to October 2025, engaging key stakeholders in agriculture & food security, gender equality, and SRHR (WASH) to monitor and strengthen climate finance transparency and gender-responsive budgeting.

Key Expected Outcomes:

- ✓ Increased transparency and accountability in climate finance
- ✓ Strengthened gender-responsive budgeting for climate adaptation
- ✓ Policy recommendations through policy briefs, analyzing the state of climate finance in Cameroon
- ✓ Empowerment of stakeholders through capacity-building and knowledge-sharing.

We are working towards a more transparent, inclusive, and accountable climate finance system in Cameroon, ensuring that funding effectively supports agriculture, gender equality, and SRHR within the framework of national climate policies.

Let's ensure climate finance reaches those who need it most!

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Beatrice NdeFon

Executive Director, Solidarity Health Foundation

Beatrice NdeFon is a committed humanitarian and development professional working to improve health and social services in conflict-affected regions of Cameroon. She leads the Solidarity Health Foundation in Buea, a fast-growing city grappling with the effects of conflict and the COVID-19 pandemic. With 83 full-time employees, the foundation focuses on alleviating poverty and suffering by strengthening healthcare capacity and supporting communities facing hardship. Beatrice is dedicated to building sustainable solutions that enhance resilience and well-being for those in need.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Anjianjei Constantine Angyebit

Founder, Creative Artists for Nature and Sustainable Development

Anjianjei Constantine Angyebit is a journalist, researcher, and environmental activist with over eight years of experience in climate advocacy. He is the founder of Creative Artists for Nature and Sustainable Development (CANSUD), an initiative blending art, media, and activism to promote sustainability. With a background in Journalism and Mass Communication, Anjianjei leverages storytelling to drive environmental awareness. He is also a researcher at the Geniwa Institute of Holistic Medicine, exploring the intersection of nature, health, and sustainable living. His work is dedicated to fostering creative solutions for climate resilience and sustainable development.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

LESSA TCHOHOU Fabrice

Lessa is a dedicated seed technologist and project manager, currently studying Development Cooperation and Humanitarian Action at IRIC. A Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) Fellow in Public Management, he has been recognized for his innovative contributions, winning first prize in Climate-Smart Agriculture Innovation and third prize at the International Open Access Week. His work focuses on advancing sustainable agricultural practices and driving impactful development initiatives. Through his leadership and expertise, Lessa is committed to fostering food security and resilience in communities.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Dr Tchokote Épouse Donfack Alphonsine Florentine

Founder, Creative Artists for Nature and Sustainable Development

Dr Tchokote Épouse Donfack Alphonsine Florentine est Docteure (PhD) en Lettres, passionnée par l'agriculture et la permaculture. Elle est Présidente du Comité National de Pilotage du GEF/SGP/PNUD, et continue de jouer un rôle central dans la promotion du genre au sein du Forum Camerounais du Conseil Agricole.

Elle est également membre du bureau national de l'African Women Leadership Network (AWLN 237) et dirige plusieurs organisations engagées dans la défense des droits des personnes handicapées. Enseignante bilingue dans les lycées et universités, elle œuvre depuis 2006 pour l'inclusion et l'autonomisation des personnes vulnérables, notamment les femmes, jeunes filles, filles mères et personnes handicapées.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Leinyuy Rosette

Women for a Change

Leinyuy Rosette is a gender and climate justice advocate passionate about climate change and gender equality. She currently volunteers at Women for a Change, Cameroon (WFAC), where she actively engages in conversations and negotiations to promote climate action and advance women and girls' sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR).

A peace ambassador and bachelor's degree holder in conflict resolution, Rosette believes in the power of sports as a tool for conflict resolution and community transformation. She is committed to advocacy and transformative change, continuously seeking opportunities to enhance her knowledge in gender justice and climate action.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

AMANA CÉLINE NATHALIE

Executive, COFEM

Amana Céline Nathalie is a dedicated trade unionist since 2005, passionate about social justice and advocating for the rights of workers. Her commitment and activism have led to significant achievements in the education sector.

Currently, she focuses on supporting people in the informal sector, who often lack social protection, working to ensure their rights and well-being are recognized and safeguarded.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

FORBAH SANDRA NGWEMETOH

Founder, BRIDGES

Forbah Sandra is a Cameroonian ocean literacy enthusiast, nature lover, and advocate for youth empowerment. She is currently pursuing a Master's degree in Disaster Risk Management and is the founder of BRIDGES (Building Resilient Individuals, Developing Generational Environmental Sustainability).

As a 2024 National Geographic Young Explorer and Early Career Ocean Professionals (ECOP) communications coordinator, she focuses on expanding the knowledge and engagement of Cameroonians in ocean-related careers. Passionate about environmental education, Forbah aims to inspire future generations to understand and protect marine ecosystems.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Membong Joycie Ngong

Women for a Change

Membong Joycie Ngong is a dedicated and passionate youth with a strong drive for women and girls' sexual and reproductive health and rights. Her firm background in health enables her to further engage in positive conversations about women's and girls' wellbeing. With a BSc in Microbiology, she is keen on understanding the interrelationship and connectedness of climate change, gender, and health. Over the years, she has received both academic and professional recognition for her contributions to the National HIV/AIDS sensitization campaign and awareness-raising on the effects and existence of microorganisms to our health and ecosystem. As a volunteer for Wfac, she is enthusiastic about bridging the gaps in access to sexual and reproductive health services, information, and products

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Maloke Scholar P

Journalist

Scholar Maloke is a journalist with 21 years of experience in news gathering and treatment. Passionate about educating and informing the public on pressing issues like health, sexual and reproductive health, climate change, and education, she aims to empower people to make informed decisions. Scholar has attended several workshops on climate change and written articles to raise public awareness on the subject. She is also deeply committed to advocating for women and girls' rights, and is enthusiastic about adventure and activities that positively impact the community. Writing news articles for broadcast is what keeps her going.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Sevidzem Ernestine Leikeki

Women and Gender Focal Point, Cameroon Gender and Environment Watch

SEVIDZEM Ernestine LEIKEKI is a founding member and Women Empowerment Officer at Cameroon Gender and Environment Watch (CAMGEW). She holds an MSc in Rural Development from Bamenda University and a BSc in Law from Yaoundé II University. Ernestine has completed various courses in gender advocacy, agroforestry, conflict management, and business. With a focus on women's empowerment, conservation, and youth development, she advocates for women's rights to education, employment, and leadership, emphasizing their role in natural resource management. Ernestine has been working with women and youth in CAMGEW since 2008, promoting their voices in development.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Dr. Zoneziwoh Mbongdulo-Wondieh

Executive director, Women for a Change

Dr. Zoneziwoh is an award-winning feminist, gender and development expert, and advocate for women's rights in Africa. As the Executive Director of Women for a Change (WFAC) Cameroon, she has led transformative initiatives on sexual and reproductive health, gender equality, and youth leadership. With a strong background in policy advocacy and research, she has shaped inclusive policies and influenced global dialogues. Her work has impacted thousands, amplifying women's voices and fostering feminist movements that challenge inequalities and promote sustainable development. Dr. Zoneziwoh's leadership continues to drive meaningful change in Cameroon and beyond.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Hilux Fokou Ngoumo

Communications Assistant, Women for a Change

Hilux is a passionate advocate from Cameroon and an alumnus of the NGO CSW/NY Global Youth Fellowship. He merges technology with climate action and gender equality, representing Central African youth at UN conferences, including COPs and CSWs. A key member of Mifali, he has empowered youth in climate change, ASRHR, and other topics through workshops and training. He has also reviewed grants for women-led initiatives and serves as a Youth Panelist for the EU Youth Empowerment Fund. He contributes to WFAC, working towards meaningful social impact. As a member of GenEgaliteECCAS, he actively supports efforts to advance gender equality and youth empowerment across Central Africa.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

NJILI IRELINE MERCY MBINOH

COMMITTEE MEMBER, Mifali

Njili Ireline Mercy is a dynamic youth leader advocating for girls' rights, education, gender equity, and climate action. Passionate about humanitarian work and gender accountability, she is pursuing a master's in Development Studies from IIT Madras, focusing on urbanization and climate change. As a Global Youth Champion for CSW67 in Africa and an active member of the Mifali Movement, she amplifies youth voices in global discussions on gender and sustainability. Committed to driving social change, she prioritizes creating inclusive spaces where young people, especially girls, can influence policies and shape a sustainable future.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Ngimou Victorine Nchokuno

Ngimou Victorine is a passionate advocate for education, gender equality, and social impact. As the Advocate Program Lead/Administrator for the Anna Nabuh Foundation, she oversees advocacy initiatives and community empowerment programs. Holding a bachelor's degree in Human Resource Management, she blends organizational expertise with a people-centered approach. She has represented youth voices at global platforms such as COP29 and GPE's Futures Festival. Active in global networks like the Global Partnership for Education and Our Future Agenda Engineerroom, Ngimou champions education for all, sanitation, and community development, striving to be a voice for the voiceless and a force for change.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

FORBANSON HOPE ASANJI

Member, Mifali

Forbanson Hope Asanji is a third-year aspiring anesthetist and a passionate youth advocate. Dedicated to empowering young boys and girls, he works to amplify their voices in decision-making and policy formulation. He actively participated in the Clean-Sweep program, organized by MIFALI in collaboration with Wfac Cameroon, promoting community engagement and social impact. Hope believes in ensuring that young people are heard and their ideas are integrated into high-level discussions. Through his advocacy, he strives to create spaces where youth can influence policies that shape their futures.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Jivirka Ernestine N. Fonrem

Jivirka Ernestine N. Fonrem is a seasoned agricultural technician with extensive experience in sustainable farming and environmental conservation. Holding a diploma from the Regional College of Agriculture Bambili, she has worked with HEIFER International Cameroon as a trainer and contributed to the introduction of Analog Forestry in Cameroon with CENDEP, focusing on tree planting at water catchments. In addition to her agricultural expertise, she serves as an accountant in a microfinance institution. A dedicated professional, wife, and mother of six, Jivirka continues to drive community-based solutions for environmental sustainability and economic empowerment.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

TCHUENGUA SEUHOU FRANCK MICHEL

Women for a Change

Tchuengua Seuhou Franck Michel is a passionate advocate and student pursuing a double major in Women and Gender Studies and Law at the University of Buea. As a Wfac volunteer, he has gained expertise in advocacy, management, communication, and leadership. He played a key role in organizing the Beijing+30 conference in Yaoundé and mobilizing the AFWID 2025 delegation. Franck has also led a 16-day activism campaign against GBV and a UNGA watch party. Committed to defending women's and girls' rights and tackling climate change, he actively drives change in his community. He is also a guitar enthusiast.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Tanda Godwin Ade

Executive Director, Environmental Protection and Development Association

Tanda Godwin is a dedicated professional specializing in environmental protection, sustainable development, and community empowerment. With expertise in project management and capacity building, he has significantly contributed to initiatives improving environmental practices, agriculture, and humanitarian efforts. His work focuses on sustainable agriculture, climate change adaptation, and food security, advocating for policies that protect natural resources while fostering socio-economic development for vulnerable communities. Passionate about capacity-building and grassroots empowerment, Tanda leads impactful environmental conservation and community development initiatives, striving to enhance resilience while promoting sustainability and long-term growth.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

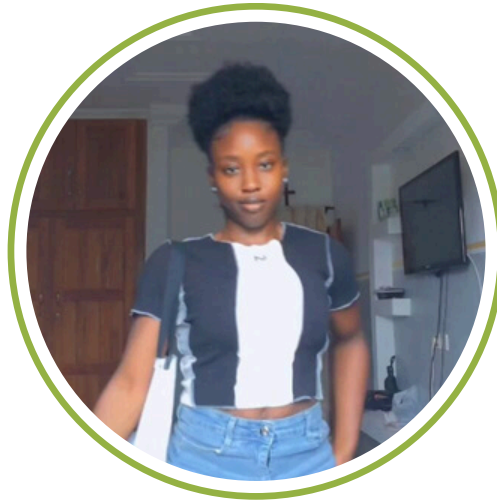

#WfacAt15

Njonguo Sindy Njonguo

Founder/Director, Africa Humanitarian Development Peace Organization

Njonguo Sindy Nguégim is a passionate youth empowerment advocate, climate activist, and agricultural leader. She is the founder of Africa Humanitarian Development Peace Organization (AHDPO) and convenes Potential Youth. As a trainer, campus director for the University of Buea Hult Prize, and coordinator for multiple organizations, she actively fosters youth leadership and innovation. A dedicated Apiarist, Sindy promotes sustainability and agricultural development. Through her work, she exemplifies the power of youth in shaping a more sustainable and equitable future, inspiring others to unlock their potential and drive lasting social and environmental change.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Esther Ebot

GenEgaliteECCAS

Esther Ebot is a self-taught multidisciplinary creative and advocate whose work bridges art, activism, and empowerment. With expertise in graphic design, animation, and social media management.

Beyond her creative pursuits, Esther holds a background in International Relations and Conflict Resolution. As a Cameroonian directly impacted by the ongoing crisis, she leverages her platform to expose human rights abuses and champion women's rights. Committed to service, she volunteers her skills while mentoring women, guiding them toward financial independence through skill development.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Emmanuel Ndabombi

Volunteers Manager and gShe National Coordinator, Women for a Change

Emmanuel Ndabombi is a feminist, gender equality advocate, and SDG Champion. He serves as Volunteers Manager and National Coordinator for Comprehensive Sexuality Education at Women for a Change, Cameroon (Wfac), with a strong academic background in Women and Gender Studies, Sociology, and Anthropology. He leads volunteer mobilization, training, and deployment across Wfac programs. Emmanuel also designs the curriculum for the gShe program, impacting over 2,000 students annually. As an SDG Champion, he uses sports to raise awareness on the Global Goals, connecting grassroots communities with policymakers to influence decisions affecting everyday lives.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

#ClimateFinance

#WfacAt15

Harrison Ajebe-Nnoko Ngaaje

Executive President and Co-Founder of AJESH

Harrison Ajebe-Nnoko Ngaaje is a seasoned conservationist with over 20 years of experience in forest, marine, and wetland ecosystem management. He is the Executive President and Co-Founder of AJESH, operating in Cameroon, Ghana, Tanzania, and the USA. Harrison specializes in community-based conservation, protected area management, land use planning, and ecosystem restoration. His work spans forest, mangrove, and marine governance, climate resilience, and REDD+. He is a key contributor to Cameroon's NBSAP, NDC, and NAP, and is committed to safeguarding natural resources while defending community access rights through nature-based solutions and participatory approaches.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

Supported by World Resources Institute (WRI) - Green Accountability Fund

WORLD
RESOURCES
INSTITUTE

green accountability platform

Meet our Partner Organizations

BRIOGES

Florentina Gardens

Together, we work to ensure climate finance is gender-responsive, transparent, and effectively implemented in Cameroon.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) Partner Orgs.

Know more about our partner Organization Environmental Protection and Development Association (EPDA)

EPDA is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting sustainable environmental practices, agriculture, and community development. The association advocates for policies focused on environmental conservation, food security, and humanitarian aid. EPDA empowers local communities and conflict-affected groups through projects in water supply, sanitation, climate change adaptation, environmental education, and socio-economic development. By balancing conservation with sustainable development, EPDA strives to protect natural resources and improve the quality of life for future generations.

Know more about our partner Organization Africa Humanitarian Development Peace Organization (AHDPO)

AHDPO is an NGO committed to addressing humanitarian, development, and peacebuilding challenges across Africa. Guided by the UN Nexus approach, the organization integrates humanitarian assistance, development efforts, and peace promotion to enhance resilience in vulnerable communities. AHDPO focuses on sectors such as health, education, and environmental protection to create lasting positive impacts. Its vision is to lead the Humanitarian-Development-Peace Nexus, working toward sustainable development and a culture of peace across the African continent.

Know more about our partner Organization Women for a Change

Women for a Change, Cameroon is a subregional feminist advocacy, research, and awareness-raising organization working with and for women and girls sexual and reproductive health, leadership and development within the context of climate justice, peace and security across Central Africa. Rooted in feminist principles, we are dedicated to creating a world where women and girls can live fulfilling lives, free from systemic inequalities, violence, and discrimination.

Know more about our partner Organization AJEMALEBU SELF HELP

AJEMALEBU SELF HELP (AJESH) is a not-for-profit organization legally registered in Cameroon (2006), the USA (2022), Ghana (2022), and Tanzania (2023). Founded by development professionals, AJESH promotes nature-positive, self-help poverty alleviation initiatives among forest and coastal communities in Africa. It focuses on sustainable natural resource management, using Human Rights-based and Nature Protection-Based Approaches (HRbA & NPBA). Its work spans biodiversity conservation, ecosystem restoration, agroecology, marine and forest governance, climate resilience, and access to essential services. AJESH operates in collaboration with national authorities, communities, and international organizations to strengthen livelihoods and promote human rights in conservation settings.

Know more about our partner Organization Solidarity Health Foundation

The Solidarity Health Foundation, based in Buea, Cameroon, focuses on alleviating poverty and suffering through the empowerment of women and youth. Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic and the ongoing conflict in the region, the organization continues to support initiatives related to gender-based violence (GBV), climate finance, SRHR, and feminist leadership. With a dedicated team of 83 employees, the foundation strives to overcome gender financing gaps and enhance the technical and financial capacity of women's-led businesses.

Know more about our partner Organization Creative Artists for Nature and Sustainable Development (CANSUD)

CANSUD is a youth-led organization that uses art to advocate for best practices in environmental conservation and climate action. Through creative expression, the organization raises awareness and inspires change, engaging communities in sustainable practices. By integrating arts and environmentalism, CANSUD amplifies the voices of young people, encouraging them to take an active role in preserving the environment and promoting climate resilience.

Know more about our partner Organization GIC HANEPTRACOPAY

HANEPTRACOPAY is a collective initiative by people with disabilities focused on urban agriculture and environmental protection. Based in Yaoundé, the organization promotes the use of recycled plastic for creating agricultural spaces and values waste management. Their activities include urban farming, livestock management, and aquaculture, with a strong emphasis on agroecology. The association also provides training in sustainable agriculture practices, utilizing biological and natural fertilizers for improved product quality and environmental protection.

Know more about our partner Organization COFEM

The Committee of Women Workers (COFEM), part of the Central Trade Union of the Public Sector (CSP), was founded in 2009. COFEM aims to strengthen the capacities of women workers to negotiate and advocate for workers' rights. The organization is represented by its chairwoman and has focal points across various regions of Cameroon, promoting women's leadership and participation in labor advocacy and negotiations within public sector labor movements.

Know more about our partner Organization BRIDGES

BRIDGES is an initiative dedicated to empowering youth in ocean science and conservation. Through social outreach, youth mentorship, nature activism, green entrepreneurship, and partnerships, BRIDGES raises awareness and fosters action for ocean protection. The initiative aims to change perceptions of ocean sciences in Cameroon, inspiring young people to engage in marine conservation and develop innovative solutions to protect our oceans and communities.

Know more about our partner Organization Mifali

MIFALI is an adolescent and young women-led feminist movement founded in December 2019 in Cameroon. Emerging from a program hosted by Women for a Change (Wfac), MIFALI was created in response to the discrimination and inequalities faced by young girls and women. The movement empowers adolescents and young women to claim their rights, lead advocacy campaigns, and champion social justice. By promoting intersectional leadership and gender equality, MIFALI brings together diverse voices, including girls, young women, and adolescent boys. Through global advocacy, capacity-building, and peer-to-peer training, MIFALI advocates for gender equality and adolescent leadership on international platforms.

Climate Finance Actions (CFA) in Cameroon

